October 4, 2023, LEHI, UT—SirsiDynix, a leading provider of library technology solutions, invites library professionals everywhere to attend Connections 2023, a free online conference taking place this October 24 through 26.

Designed to equip library staff with resources that support—and inspire—their team, patrons, and communities, this event will feature:

- Dozens of 15–30 minute sessions dedicated to industry trends, comprehensive product overviews, and professional development insights.
- A dynamic lineup of speakers, including author and consultant Cordelia Anderson, Library Technology Guides creator Marshall Breeding, and EveryLibrary founder John Chrastka.
- Opportunities to connect with 1,000+ peers from libraries across the globe.

Each day of the conference will run from 11:00 a.m. to 3:00 p.m. ET and offer sessions on a distinct theme:

Opening Day will explore the evolving landscape of librarianship through sessions on generative artificial intelligence, digital equity, open infrastructure, and more.

Day Two: Explore BLUEcloud Day will zero in on SirsiDynix's guiding principle, BLUE—the Best Library User Experience—and the family of products it has inspired.

Day Three: Experience SirsiDynix Day encourages attendees to follow one of three custom tracks: Partner, which will focus on current and forthcoming collaborations between SirsiDynix and other organizations; Director, which will delve into SirsiDynix implementations, support, and services; and Academic, which will investigate transformative approaches to both open access content and eResource and course list management.
